NAVY DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Dear Mr. Baird:

The U.S. Naval Intelligence School conducts a course instruction five times a year for Naval Attaches prior to their departure for overseas assignments. In previous years, to supplement the Attache Orientation Course, the Central Intelligence Agency has provided guest lecturers. To assist in meeting the objectives of this course, the services of guest speakers from the Central Intelligence Agency are again requested.

The above times have been discussed informally with each speaker. This confirms schedules made based on verbal permission of [] to make these preliminary arrangements. LCDR J.G. BOGDAN, USN, of the Naval Intelligence School faculty is authorized to make further arrangements with the requested lecturers as necessary.

I wish to express my appreciation to each of the requested speakers for making their contributions to past Attache Orientation Classes and to you, for making their services available. Their presentations have always been comprehensive, highly knowledgeable, and given in an extremely effective manner; they have been contributed materially to the overall success of the Naval Attache briefing program.

Sincerely yours,

B.E. WIGGIN
Captain, U.S. Navy
